- Non-broadcast Public Service

Additional "Non-Broadcast Service" of
WTJC-TV Management

Management of WTJC-TV has long demonstrated a pattern of community service which extends beyond the requirements of the normal job descriptions which govern the operation of WTJC-TV.

These community service examples are not an exhaustive listing of such efforts by all management persons, but rather are given as an example of the typical service projects which the Public Affairs Director has participated in while employed by WTJC-TV, and may be considered representative of other persons who have been affiliated with the station over the license term.
